Protecting the Land We Love

CONSERVING AMERICA: Champions of Wildlife

View DVD #2541 – List Price $19.98

Fifty-nine native American animal species are now extinct and 186 others are endangered. CONSERVING AMERICA: Champions of Wildlife introduces us to a new breed of inspired individuals who work day and night to fight the destruction of America's wildlife and natural habitats.

Meet a modern day Noah from Oregon, who rescues and returns injured animals to the wild. A Massachusetts couple who create nesting sights for osprey and a group of Montana kids who save loons on Talley Lake. There is also the 84 year old "turtle lady," Ida Loetscher, legendary for her work with sea turtles. Narrated by Mason Adams.

"This inspirational film makes the point that anyone with a desire to do so can be of service to the environment." –All Movie Guide

CONSERVING AMERICA: The Rivers

View DVD #2542 – List Price $19.98

Rivers are our natural wonders, influencing the look of the land they flow through and the lives of the people who depend on them for their economic and recreational needs. As important as they are, only 1% of America's rivers are protected by the Federal Wild and Scenic Rivers Act. CONSERVING AMERICA: The Rivers shares the many wonders of America's great rivers.

Follow the spectacular Rio Grande in Texas with its varied wildlife. Join students who adopt salmon-filled streams in Washington State. Visit Virginia's urban Rappahannock and travel down South Carolina's slow moving Little Pee Dee. Narrated by Burgess Meredith.

"...the live action program provides true color and sound...Highly recommended."

CONSERVING AMERICA SERIES

Protecting the Land We Love

CONSERVING AMERICA: The Challenge on the Coast

View DVD #2543 – List Price $19.98

The United States has enough coastline to wrap around the world more than three times. CONSERVING AMERICA: The Challenge on the Coast creates a unique understanding of this natural environment which, through tides and erosion, winds and storms, over-development and pollution, is always changing. Meet the dedicated individuals who fight to protect and restore America's coastlines.

An entire community becomes inspired to help clean up garbage strewn beaches in Texas' "Adopt-a-Beach" program. An eighth generation fisherwoman in North Carolina wages war against the pollution of the waters she depends on. Meet a group of Pennsylvania students known as the "Chesapeake Bay Kids" who are teaching adults how they can help save a bay 50 miles away. Narrated by Mason Adams.

CONSERVING AMERICA: The Wetlands

View DVD # 2544 – List Price $19.98

Wetlands are perhaps the most important ecosystems on Earth. Yet, due to development, over 50% of U.S. wetlands have been destroyed, disappearing at a rate of 300,000 acres each year. CONSERVING AMERICA: The Wetlands explores America's swamps and marshes through the stories of people working to protect the land they love.

Alligator Annie, former trapper turned tour guide, takes us for a ride on her boat through the coastal marshes of Louisiana. We meet conservation hero and author Marjory Stoneman Douglass who has championed her beloved Florida Everglades through her bestseller, "Rivers of Grass." We also experience the efforts of a Louisiana businessman, a game warden and a farmer who unite to save 70,000 acres of forest. Narrated by Burgess Meredith.
