BARCELONA: Archive of Courtesy

Between the rugged slopes of the Pyrenees and the luxurious waters of the Mediterranean lies the region of Catalonia. It has defined the vanguard of Spanish art and culture for 2000 years, while remaining inextricably bound to its glorious past and independent nature. This special DVD showcases its capital, Barcelona, from the soaring jewel-like spires of Antoni Gaudí's "La Sagrada Familia" and the winding streets of the Gothic Quarter, to the futuristic Olympic City in Montjuic Park and the vibrant canvasses of some of history's favorite artists, such as Pablo Picasso, Joan Miro, and Salvador Dali. This exclusive DVD highlights the visionary spirit of Catalonia that is emblazoned in the culture of its capital city.

MUSEUM CITY SERIES

SEVILLE: Jewel of Andalusia

The ancient streets of Seville showcase the multicultural imprint of the numerous peoples and cultures that have called the city home: Romans, Visigoths, Muslims, Jews and Christians. Whether exploring the Roman ruins of Italica, the lush Moorish palace of the Alcazar, the delicate beauty of Santa Cruz (the center of Seville's Jewish history), or the Gothic brilliance of the city's largest cathedral, the celebrated La Giralda, Seville is a contemporary city that wears its history openly in the churches, intimate neighborhoods, food, and ancient ruins that reflect its glorious past. This special DVD will let you experience first-hand the art, architecture, history, and charm of Seville, the Jewel of Andalusia.
