campaign speeches, and exclusive historic videotape from WFAA, the Dallas station whose studios are located so near the infamous grassy knoll where the JFK was shot. Woven throughout the historic footage are recollections from Gerald Ford, Coretta Scott King, Tip O'Neil, Peter, Paul and Mary, Isaac Stern, Arthur Schlesinger Jr., Ted Kennedy, and many others, all remembering the man who so deeply touched their lives. JFK's triumphs, failures, inspirations, and contributions to our history are all aptly covered and discussed in this expansive, award-winning DVD documentary.

Combining the tragedy of John F. Kennedy's untimely death, with the remembrances of those who knew him best, and those who did not know him personally but were affected and inspired by his life, this film allows us to see the events of his final days as they happened, from JFK's arrival in Dallas to his funeral in Washington four days later.

As seen on TV, this film, JFK: The Day the Nation Cried, rediscovers President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, one of America's most beloved and
